This

THIS Alphabetical Index being drawn up with the greateſt Exactneſs, as a Key to the following Liſts, the Collector thinks himſelf oblig'd in Juſtice to ſeveral honourable Gentlemen therein mention'd, to make the following Remark, which has been omitted in the former Editions. It is very well known that in all Ages there have not been wanting a deſigning Set of Men, who have made it their Buſineſs to impoſe upon honeſt well meaning Gentlemen ; to ſeduce them into Meaſures oppoſite to their own Honour and their Country's Good. Therefore the Reader will here find the Names of ſeveral honourable Gentlemen in ſome of the Liſts, inſerted among others who have voted againſt the Proteſtant Religion, and Succeſſion, and our Trade and Liberties ; but as the Collector could not omit them without being guilty of notorious Partiality, the Reader is hereby deſired, in Juſtice to thoſe Gentlemen, to conſult thoſe Liſts which are of a later Date, where he will find them rank'd among thoſe worthy Patriots, who to their immortal Honour, have in the worſt of times confronted a corrupt daring Miniſtry in the Cloſet, and oppoſed a Frenchified Faction in the Senate ; and as moſt of them are already choſen to ſerve their Country in King George's firſt Parliament, we have very good reaſon to hope that the next Houſe of Commons will be the beſt that ever ſate in St. Stephen's Chappel.

FINIS.

To the Freeholders of GREAT BRITAIN.

Gentlemen,

YOur joyful Congratulations upon King George's ſeaſonable Acceſſion to the Crown, expreſs'd in your late Addreſſes to his Majeſty; your dutiful Declaration, how you value thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings of Liberty and Property, which you now begin to enjoy; your Due Reſentment, expreſs'd againſt the late Managers, who had almoſt depriv'd you of both; your juſt Commendation of the preſent wiſe and honeſt Miniſtry; your firm Reſolution to venture your Lives and Fortunes for his Majeſty, to whom, under God, you are indebted for thoſe dear Enjoyments; your eminent Joy upon the Days of his Majeſty's Acceſſion, Arrival and Coronation; all theſe extraordinary Inſtances of Loyalty, ſeem as ſo many evident Tokens of your good Diſpoſition to ſend ſuch Gentlemen to repreſent you in the enſuing Parliament, as will have the tendereſt Regard to his Majeſty's Honour, and your Rights and Priviledges.

Sirs, If ever there was a Neceſſity for you to exert your utmoſt Abilities in Elections, 'tis on this Occaſion; for the ſame Men who theſe four Years laſt have been working the Ruin of the Nation, ſtill carry on the ſame Deſigns, as fully appears from their late inſolent Riots, with which they have mobb'd the Government, and

and the ſeditious Sermons and traiterous Libels, with which they have poyſon'd the Minds of the Vulgar.

Neither need we queſtion that the Faction will ſpare any Coſt to get their Ringleaders choſe Members of Parliament, and if we may believe Forreign Advices, their Friends the French Bankers are continually negociating great Sums, for Bills of Exchange upon London, which 'tis ſuppos'd are to be made Uſe of to ſupport the Pretender's Party, and to bribe Votes at Elections for Parliament Men. But now (thanks be to God) the Faction can't do this with the ſame Eaſe as they did in the laſt Election, for then it was ſufficient to bribe the Returning Officer, whereas now they muſt apply directly to your ſelves; but we hope you will be neither brib'd, cajol'd nor menac'd to chuſe ſuch Gentlemen as have given publick Inſtances in former Parliaments of their Diſaffection to the Proteſtant Religion and Succeſſion, or to your Trade and Liberty.

That you may the better diſtinguiſh theſe from your Friends, I have here collected the Names of both in the following Liſts. And as for farther Advice, I'm ſure you cannot have any from a Greater or Better Hand than King George, who in his Royal Proclamation for calling a new Parliament has given you ſuch wholeſome Directions, as (if follow'd) will not fail to make us a Happy and a Glorious People.
